Dear Gig goer,

Welcome to the Autumn 2013 series of gigs at the Flowerpot. Well it's another varied and exciting line up with some exciting new bands as well as the return of Pot favourites. On only their 2nd tour of the UK, we welcome the new "super-group" of the blues/soul scene to the Pot - The Royal Southern Brotherhood. Also causing a stir on the blues scene is Jo Harman who plays in Sept as part of her tour to promote her fantastic new album "Dirt On My Tongue". Kelly Joe Phelps has long been recognised as one of the world's best slide guitarists. Ducks Deluxe mark 40 years on the road with an anniversary gig in November. Welcome returns from Pat Travers, Bernie Marsden and Hazel O'Connor who is joined by a full band this time around. Lot's more of your favourite artistes as well as top class entertainment from the UK's best and most popular tribute bands. As always, thanks for your support - Enjoy the gigs.

ROYAL SOUTHERN BROTHERHOOD

featuring Devon Allman Cyril Neville & Mike Zito

Mike Zito, Devon Allman, Cyril Neville ~ The soul of the south. Amplified soul for the new generation

Before they even hit a chord, The Royal Southern Brotherhood have your attention. In the US South, where music is religion, two rock 'n' roll bloodlines tower above all others. In the saloon bars from Mississippi to Maryland, mere mention of the Allman and Neville Brothers casts a magic spell. Conversation falls silent. Pool balls stop rolling. Ten-gallon hats are tipped in respect and beer-bottles raised in salute. These aren't just bands, they're gods, and with a lineup comprising both the iconic Cyril Neville and Devon Allman, The Royal Southern Brotherhood come pre-loaded with expectations. Don't worry: they can match them. The family tree might be auspicious, but this new band trades on talent, not genealogy. It's not about rock history: it's about the here-and-now

Friday 27th September

Doors 8pm

Tickets £15.00

Albert Lee's impeccable country music and rock pedigree stretches back over more than 40 years. He has performed with many of the greats in country and rock, including Joe Cocker, Emmylou Harris, Eric Clapton and the Everly Brothers. As well as being a top guitarist, he is also a red hot piano player and a pretty good singer too. His new band (well, they've been together for 15 years!) comprises some of the best known rock 'n' roll and country players in Britain.

Friday 25th October Doors 8pm

Having recently celebrated 30 years of Breaking Glass, HAZEL O'CONNOR embarks on her hugely successful Breaking Glass Live/Greatest Hits tour, in which you can catch all of the hits and songs from this iconic film in addition to subsequent chart singles. Melding Hazel's superb vocals with soaring sax, guitar, piano, bass and drums, this is the full band sound .

Thursday 31st October Doors 8pm

Ian Siegal
& The Mississippi Mudbloods

Ladies and Gentlemen: Ian Siegal has entered the building. If you know the name, but not the game, it's high time you made his acquaintance. He's the multiple British Blues Awards winner and hot tip of everyone from Mojo to Classic Rock. He's the songwriter whose recent CD releases sound like career peaks, but are only the start.

With the Mississippi Mudbloods, Siegal brings together like-minded artists from the USA. For the Mudbloods November tour expect to see Californian Duane Betts on guitar, son of the legendary Allman Brothers co-founder, Dickey Betts, with Cody Dickinson again on Drums.
