Dear Gig goer,

Welcome to the Spring 2013 series of gigs at the Flowerpot. Another chance to see some of the regular top bands & artists that are again touring this Spring and thankfully have included the Flowerpot as part of their trek around the UK and Europe. In particular it's great to see Colin Blunstone, Ian McNabb, Curved Air and the return after nearly 2 years of a Flowerpot fave Nine Below Zero. Plenty of new names to look out for this Spring as well. Uli Jon Roth is rightly recognised as one of the world's most outstanding guitarists. 5 years with The Scorpions and now also known for inventing his own unique instrument, the 6-octave Sky guitar. Now when it comes to iconic bands, they say there were three bands that led the British Beat Boom: The Beatles, The Rolling Stones and The Pretty Things. The wildest, most dangerous of them all were the Pretty Things. Nuff said!! As always, thanks for your support - Enjoy the gigs.

In the early 1960s, three bands led the British Beat Boom: The Beatles, The Rolling Stones and The Pretty Things. The wildest, most dangerous of them all were the Pretty Things.

Their hard-edged blues-rock, influenced by Bo Diddley and Jimmy Reed, transformed into psychedelic rock. 'SF Sorrow' was the first rock opera, preceding The Who's 'Tommy' by six months.

In the intervening years, The Pretty Things have lost none of their power or edge and are still fronted by lead singer Phil May and original Rolling Stones guitarist Dick Taylor. The year 2013 sees their 50th Anniversary Tour and we are proud to be part of the celebrations Don't miss this rare opportunity to see one of the greatest Rock bands of the last 50 years live, in concert.
