HOW TO FIND THE FLOWERPOT

The FLOWERPOT is situated on the edge of the Derby City Centre on the main A6 road. A multi-storey car park is next to the venue on Chapel Street. This is open 24 hours. The Flowerpot is famed for its vast choice of real ales and is now recognised as one of the best live music venues in the country. The capacity is 250 if standing and 150 if the show is all seated. If you are travelling a long way, please check that tickets are still available for the show. If you are travelling by bus or train, the main stations are approximately 20 minutes walk from the venue - just head for the Derby Cathedral and the Flowerpot is 100 yards further on up the road.

PLEASE BE AWARE THAT THE FLOWERPOT IS AN OVER 18 ONLY VENUE.

Advance tickets can be bought from RAW PROMOTIONS by phoning 01332 834438. Tickets are also on sale at The Flowerpot. Telephone the venue on 01332 204955 for further details.

If you wish to pay for tickets by credit card, phone SEE TICKETS on 0115 912 9000 or GIGANTIC TICKETS on 0115 807 7900. These are subject to a booking fee.

You can also purchase them online at www.rawpromo.co.uk

Dear Gig goer,

Welcome to the Spring 2014 series of gigs at the Flowerpot. A varied and exciting array of musical talent to look forward to. First time appearances at the venue from legendary rock band FOCUS who are still fronted by founder member and Rock's only yodeller Thijs Van Leer. Also first time in for Ska legends The Beat, still featuring Ranking Roger. Welcome returns from Colin Blunstone, Gerry McAvo's Band of Friends and Martin Turner's Wishbone Ash. A special night on the 21st March sees an acoustic performance by "From The Jam" fronted as always by Bruce Foxton. Blues always plays a big part at the Flowerpot and we are pleased to welcome back King King, Stevie Nimmo Trio, Danny Bryant, Stan Webb and an utterly brilliant performer who is at the venue for the first time with her band Grainne Duffy. Top tribute bands are always popular at the venue. As always, thanks for your support - Enjoy the gigs.

30th Anniversary Declaration Tour 2014

"Will Never Die".... are the three words of intent from Mike Peters and The Alarm's 'Sixty Eight Guns' evergreen 1983 hit single which was at the centre of the band's worldwide smash hit album 'Declaration' which will celebrate it's 30th anniversary in 2014.

A unique one man band 'Alarm' tour by lead singer and songwriter Mike Peters will present the album in a contemporary setting with performance, stories and images to highlight the impact this album had on the decade it was born in and it's ongoing relevance as Mike Peters continues his personal fight against cancer with the Love Hope Strength cancer charity 'Saving lives – One Concert At A Time'.

Upon release in February 1984, Declaration debuted at number 6 in the UK charts, achieving gold record status before becoming a top 40 hit in the USA.

THURSDAY 27th FEBRUARY Doors 8pm

JOHN OTWAY BIG BAND

2013 was another whirlwind year for Otway. His film "Rock and Roll's Greatest Failure - Otway The Movie" has been playing to packed houses across the country, was shown at Glastonbury and selected for the prestigious Cambridge Film Festival.

In the midst of Britain's '70s punk revolution and after a momentous TV appearance where five and a half million viewers watched him land painfully on his testicles, Otway was high in the charts. his next HIT was 25 years later.

'He's a cabaret act masquerading as a rock act. He is gleeful, anecdotal, funny and life-enhancing.'

SATURDAY 5th APRIL Doors 8pm

SONS OF CREAM

UK TOUR FEBRUARY 2014

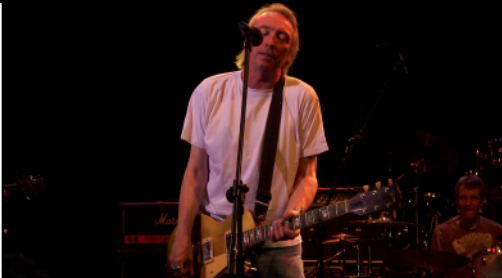

Malcolm Bruce (son of Jack Bruce), Will Johns (son of legendary producer Andy Johns and nephew of a certain guitarist called Eric Clapton) and acclaimed drummer Chris Page bring the sound of Cream back to life. And they do it with all the aplomb, gusto and brilliance that you'd expect.

NOTE: We regret to announce that due to unforeseen circumstances Kofi Baker (son of Ginger Baker) will not be appearing with Sons of Cream on this tour.

SATURDAY 22nd FEBRUARY Doors 8pm

STAN WEBB'S CHICKEN SHACK

Stan Webb's dynamic guitar style and huge stage presence have made Chicken Shack a firm favourite with rock and blues fans everywhere. It's 45 years since Stan Webb started Chicken Shack and upped stick to Hamburg and the famous Star Club. Barely 2 years later he was back in the UK and riding the top of the charts with 'I'd Rather Go Blind' with the band's new vocalist Christine Perfect (aka McVie), later of Fleetwood Mac 'Rumours' era.

Doors 8pm

DANNY BRYANT

Europe's leading Blues & Rock publication, Classic Rock Blues, recently called Danny a "National Blues Treasure", a title that he has worked tirelessly and passionately to earn. Riding high on the European blues scene for over a decade, yet still only 32, Danny has carved a name for himself the old-fashioned way having played over 2000 club and festival shows to his many fans around the world and is acknowledged by those in the business as one of the cream of the crop.

THE WATCH

PLAYS

THE LAMB LIES DOWN ON BROADWAY TOUR

THE WATCH is a 5 piece band from Milan, Italy. Their music is inspired by the classic style prog of the 70's and in particular by the music of Genesis. All their energy and inspiration comes out on stage as a confirmation of how much they believe in what they do. The line up of the band has changed several times through the years. Simone Rossetti, founder and main composer is the singer of the band since the very start.

2014 will see The Watch performing "The Lamb Lies Down On Broadway".

Friday 14th March

Doors 8pm

Grainne Duffy

"The spiritual heir of Rory Gallagher, an Irish blues singer of real integrity" - Sunday Times

The Irish singer songwriter's soulful voice has been compared to Bonnie Rait and Joss Stone. Her music has roots in blues, soul and country with a rock tinge. Grainne's influences vary from the Rolling Stones to BB King. She is backed by a stellar band of bass, drums, guitars and keyboards.

Thursday 20th March Doors 8pm

STEVIE NIMMO TRIO

As one half of Scotland's highly respected 'Nimmo Brothers', Stevie Nimmo has been a well known and respected figure throughout the blues and roots world for over 15 years. Now, having toured extensively with the critically acclaimed blues rock outfit over the last 12 months, he is taking to the road in a brand new trio format which will feature original compositions and classic rockin' blues numbers

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT The Acoustic Tour

Bruce Foxton & Russell Hastings

Friday 21st March

Doors 8pm

Tickets £20.00

Early in 2013 From The Jam performed several Acoustic shows to amazing reaction. On the strength of this Bruce and the chaps have decided to go out on the road in March 2014 and perform all the classic hits with an acoustic feel. The band will also be performing classic Jam material that has not been performed for many years including Butterfly Collector and English Rose etc. There will also be a Q and A session with the audience.

The Jam had amazing chart success with 18 singles and 7 albums to make the top 40 in the United Kingdom from their debut in 1977 to their break up in 1982. Their last 5 albums were all top ten hits and their last 8 singles made it into the top 10. Just Who Is the 5 O'clock Hero? Made the charts at no 8 as an import and remains the best-selling import singles of all time in the UK.

The Jam are one of the biggest selling bands in British music history.

The Lancashire Hotpots

Famous for their songs 'I Met My Girl On Myspace' and 'Chippy Tea', regularly played by Radio 1's Colin Murray. These St Helens lads mix classic folk music with genius Lancashire-tinged comedic lyrics.

Saturday 29th March Doors 8pm

THE SEAN WEBSTER BAND

Sean Webster is an inspiring guitar vocalist with a great reputation on the British blues and rock scene. If you haven't seen him for awhile its maybe because for the last year he has lived in Australia, however he continued to write material whilst away and over the coming months you can hear some of this live at his shows.

Thursday 10th April Doors 8pm

".....The Beat. Who needs the brave new world when the old school is still this good?" Sunday Mirror

One of the biggest bands of the 2-Tone movement, The Beat present a wall of sound that transcends time and ska fusion rhythms to ignite a crowd. They play with the sole aim of connecting with and entertaining their appreciative audience with their relentless energy and world class musicianship.

The Beat are known the world over for a string of hit singles, including "Mirror in the Bathroom", "Too Nice To Talk To", "Can't Get Used To Losing You", "Hands off She's Mine" and "All Out To Get You". Their songs of peace, love and unity fuse ska, pop, reggae and punk rock and their dynamic live show has garnered them a loyal following at home and abroad.

The 2014 line-up features Ranking Roger and Ranking Junior on vocals, Fuzz Townshend on drums plus Andy Pearson, Matt Godwin and Steve Harper and Bobby Bird on bass, sax and guitars.
